老歌的故事

華語歌曲的流行和演變

鄭永松

流行歌曲深受一般民眾的喜愛，是年輕人的共同語言。隨著年齡的增長，我們又聽過不同時代的歌，當年的新曲早已成為老歌。每一代的歌曲反映了社會的部分現象，流行的嬗變受大環境的影響，國語 台語 歌曲的成長過程幾經困厄，起伏跌宕，當年的紅歌星 仍然健在嗎？讓我們踏上老歌的旅程，一起來回憶那些熟悉的旋律。

Charles K. Bergman, Albuquerque Academy

Charles Bergman is currently a member of Albuquerque Academy's history faculty. For the past twenty years he has been educating students and adult professionals to prepare them to meet successfully the challenges of globalization.

Prior to joining the Academy faculty, Charlie served as Director, Asia-Pacific, for Aperian, a Boston-based consulting firm that develops global business skills for leaders of multinational corporations. The focus of Charlie's consulting work is China and East Asia.

Charlie began his international career with a teaching appointment at Tunghai University in Taichung, Taiwan, in 1978. He then worked for five years in Beijing as a member of the IBM China start-up team, selected by IBM's New York headquarters to build a China subsidiary there. On his return to the U.S., Charlie resumed teaching and consulting.

Charlie has a B.A. in mathematics from Amherst College, an M.S. in mathematics from the University of California at Berkeley, and an M.A. in East Asian Studies from Stanford University. He is married to Shu-lin Bergman, a native of Taiwan and Albuquerque Academy's Chinese language instructor. He and Shu-lin have two children, William and Elizabeth.
