

ACES-NM Private Tour
UNM Maxwell Museum of Anthropology
9:50-11:30am,
Saturday, August 9, 2014

"China Then and Now" Exhibit and Cultural Programs

‘中国过去和现在’ UNM Maxwell 博物馆展览

Dr. David Phillips
Curator

Dr. David Phillips is hosting ACES-NM for a private tour of the pottery collection that will be part of upcoming China exhibit. He is engaging with Albuquerque's Chinese community to identify individuals who might be interested in being involved.

Please RSVP by e-mail to komodo_aps@comcast.net by Friday, August 1, 2014 for head count.

Directions and Parking The Maxwell Museum is located east of University Blvd. between Las Lomas and Dr. M. L. King Jr. Ave. Limited parking is available west of the museum, parallel to University between Dr. M. L. King Jr. Ave. and Las Lomas. Permits for parking can be obtained in the Museum Store or from the museum gallery attendant.

Taking Pictures

Photography without flash is allowed in the permanent exhibits. Photography restrictions are posted for current exhibits. No tripods or lighting are allowed without special permission. For information call: 505 277-4405

Maxwell Museum of Anthropology

MSC01 1050

1 University of New Mexico

Albuquerque, NM 87131-0001

maxwell@unm.edu

(505) 277-4405

Please RSVP by e-mail to komodo_aps@comcast.net by Friday, August 1, 2014 for head count.